BIOGRAPHY

Nina Capone, born Jamilah N. Lawry, is an American hip-hop and R&B recording artist and multi-hyphenate entrepreneur. In 2026 she released two full-length albums — Ova 40 and Audio Porn — under her own label, Mob Mistress Entertainment. Beyond music she founded My Biz Consulting, the independent broadcast network In Da Streets Radio, the non-profit Inspire Da Streets, and Mob Mistress Publishing, building an independent media ecosystem across music, radio, film, tech consulting, and community work. A hands-on technologist, she architected the AI, IT, and software backbone of her ventures herself — expertise she now delivers to clients through My Biz Consulting.
